

Module 7 Owning a Vehicle Pre-Test

Name _____ Date _____

1. When deciding what type of vehicle to buy, which factor is important to consider?
 - A. Purchase price.
 - B. Safety features.
 - C. Operating costs.
 - D. A, B, and C are all important.
2. Which of the following are examples of options you can purchase on a vehicle that would increase the cost of vehicle?
 - A. Seat belts, head rests, and padded dashboard.
 - B. Steering wheel, brake pedal, and gas pedal.
 - C. Compact disc player, air conditioning, and custom wheel covers.
 - D. A, B and C are all options.
3. Test driving any vehicle you are about to buy is important. The most important things to learn when you test drive is if the vehicle has problems with
 - A. steering, brakes, and suspension.
 - B. a burned out headlight.
 - C. a broken taillight.
 - D. fluid leaks under the vehicle.
4. Conserving Montana's natural resources is important. What habits can you practice that will help conserve fuel and reduce harmful emissions?
5. Vehicles pollute our natural resources. The two things that cause the most pollution from vehicles are:
6. The type of insurance protection that is required in Montana is:
7. What are some items you would look at carefully before purchasing a used vehicle?
8. List four different types of insurance coverage.